

BurnhamFest!

In celebration of Evanston Arts & Humanities Month and the Burnham Plan Centennial, members of Design Evanston, Evanston History Center, and the general public are invited to attend an afternoon of events celebrating Evanston's own Daniel Burnham.

Saturday, October 10, 2009
Evanston History Center
225 Greenwood Avenue

3:00pm

Burnham Walking Tour

Start the afternoon with a one-hour tour covering the neighborhood along the lakefront that Daniel Burnham called home. Led by EHC Director of Visitor Services - Kris Hartzell

4:00pm-6:00pm

Burnham in Evanston Reception

End day with a wine & cheese reception, viewing the Daniel Burnham's Evanston Exhibition, & video presentation about Daniel Burnham's life as an architect and resident of Evanston. Introduced by DE Board Member - Tom Hofmaier.

Tour: $5 EHC Members, $10 General Public

Reception: $5 DE Members, $10 General Public

This event is limited to the first fifty registrants. Deadline to rsvp is October 3.
Please rsvp to Kris Hartzell: khartzell@evanstonhistorycenter.org (847) 475-3410

BurnhamFest is organized by Design Evanston and the Evanston History Center

For more information, see:

<http://burnhamplan100.uchicago.edu>

<http://evanstonhistorycenter.org>

<http://designevanston.org>

Related Burnham Activities in Evanston

Northwestern University Library: Burnham at Northwestern
This exhibit features materials from the University Archives, and includes documents, photographs, and blueprints from the construction of Fisk Hall, and sketches of Burnham's proposals for a redesigned Evanston campus.

Evanston Public Library: Make Big Plans

The library is hosting a photo-panel exhibit, created by the Newberry Library in collaboration with the Burnham Plan Centennial. The display, located on the third floor of the Main Library, will run through December 2009.

